

Our night of romance has begun
It's time now to have some fun
So, go to the place
That reflects your face
And there you'll find clue number one

Remember our song and first dance
If you search, you might find by chance
A sweet serenade
Where music is played
To prepare for a night of romance

Cancel plans and set time apart
I'll even give you a little head start
In your glove box is placed
A small foretaste
A delicious piece of my heart

Tonight, the whole world is ours, it's true
A dreamland created for just me and you

Let's set first the amorous mood
A dreamy, relaxing prelude Something scent-filled and nice
Where bubbles entice And passion and strength is renewed

There will be something sweet
Where you find food to eat
As we savor time long overdue

It's time now to turn up the heat
Your search is yet still incomplete
Go claim a prize
Where temperatures rise
To continue this steamy retreat

With just time and some soft candlelight
I'll be the maiden and you the brave knight
So, go find the place
With lingerie and lace
And discover a lover's delight
